

Darth Vader's TIE Advanced x1

The TIE Advanced x1 was armed with heavy twin blaster cannons on fixed mounts, and was also capable of carrying secondary weapons such as cluster missiles.

In addition, unlike most TIE models, the TIE Advanced x1 was equipped with both a hyperdrive and a deflector shield generator and even a much more effective solar ionization reactor and stronger hull.

Unlike the class standard, Vader's TIE Advanced also possessed a life-support system.

